

People around the world have different beliefs. There are many people of faith who follow a set of beliefs and show their faith in different ways.

Make a mural that tells about people of faith you learned about in Chapter 23.

