

A genre painting is a painting in which scenes from everyday life form the subject matter. Compose your own genre painting in the frame below by drawing what you think an everyday scene from the life of Saint John Vianney might look like.

