New Apostle Chosen

JERUSALEM — Peter and the other apostles met briefly in Jerusalem. Peter told the others that Judas had died and another person was needed to take his place. Lots were cast. Matthias, a witness to everything the apostles had seen and heard, drew the lot that showed he had been chosen to take Judas's place as one of the apostles.

Town Gets Ready for Feast

JERUSALEM — Many people are gathering in Jerusalem for the annual Jewish feast of Weeks. The Jewish Feast of Weeks, also known as Pentecost each year, seven weeks after Passover. Harvest gifts are brought to the Temple in thanksgiving to God.
