We Are Called to Holiness

"Do this in remembrance of me." (1 Corinthians 11:24)

A major theme in your We Believe textbook this year is learning more about the Ten Commandments. Your book is divided into four units.

Watch for these special signs:

Whenever we see  we make the sign of the cross. We pray and begin our day's lesson.

 is an open Bible. When we see it, or a reference like this (John 13:34), we hear the word of God. We hear about God and his people. We hear about Jesus and the Holy Spirit.

When we see  we do an activity.

We might:

- talk together
- write a story
- draw a picture
- act out a story or situation
- imagine ourselves doing something
- sing a song together, or make up one
- work together on a special project.

There are all kinds of activities! We might see  in any part of our day's lesson. Be on the lookout!

Can you guess what  means? That's right, it means it is time to sing, or listen to music! We sing songs we know, make up our own, and sing along with those in our We Believe music program.

When we see  we review the meanings of important words we have learned in the day's lesson.

As Catholics...

Here we discover something special about our faith. We reflect on what we have discovered and try to make it a part of our life. Don't forget to read it!
